

BENEFIT GUIDE

Global Health Insurance Plan

Effective: April 2025

WELCOME TO YOUR GLOBAL HEALTH INSURANCE PLAN

Dear Member,

Thank you for choosing Global Health Insurance. This Benefit Guide explains the benefits and rules of your health insurance policy. Please read this guide in conjunction with your Insurance Certificate and Table of Benefits to ensure you fully understand your coverage.

1. OVERVIEW OF YOUR COVERAGE

Your Global Health Insurance Plan provides comprehensive coverage for a wide range of medical treatments, both in-patient and out-patient. The goal of this plan is to provide you with access to high-quality healthcare services globally while offering financial protection against unexpected medical expenses.

Coverage Period

Your coverage begins on the date shown on your Insurance Certificate and continues for 12 months unless otherwise specified. The policy may be renewed annually subject to the terms and conditions in effect at the time of renewal.

Geographic Coverage

Your insurance plan provides coverage in the geographic area specified in your Insurance Certificate and Table of Benefits. Emergency treatment is covered worldwide, subject to the limitations specified in your Table of Benefits.

Pre-Authorization Requirements

Certain treatments and procedures require pre-authorization. These include:

- All planned in-patient treatment
- Any treatment with anticipated costs exceeding $2,000
- Maternity care
- Medical evacuation/repatriation
- MRI, PET and CT-scans

Failure to obtain pre-authorization may result in a 50% reduction of eligible benefits.

2. HOW TO USE YOUR PLAN

Direct Billing Network

Your plan includes access to our extensive direct billing network. When visiting a provider within this network, you will only need to present your membership card, and the provider will bill us directly for covered expenses. You will only be responsible for any co-payments, deductibles, or non-covered services.

Out-of-Network Services

If you choose to visit a healthcare provider outside of our network, you may need to pay for services upfront and submit a claim for reimbursement. Reimbursement will be processed according to your policy benefits and any applicable limitations.

Emergency Services

In case of emergency:

1. Contact our 24/7 Emergency Assistance line: +1-800-555-7892
2. Show your membership card to the healthcare provider
3. If hospitalized, have someone notify us within 48 hours

Digital Services

Access your policy information through our secure member portal at www.globalhealthinsurance.com/members (<http://www.globalhealthinsurance.com/members>), where you can:

- Submit and track claims
- Find network providers

- Access your policy documents
 - Request pre-authorization
 - Contact customer service

3. DEFINITIONS

Acute condition: A disease, illness, or injury that is likely to respond quickly to treatment which aims to return you to the state of health you were in immediately before suffering the disease, illness, or injury, or which leads to your full recovery.

Chronic condition: A disease, illness, or injury that has one or more of the following characteristics:

- Needs ongoing or long-term monitoring through consultations, examinations, check-ups, and/or tests
- Needs ongoing or long-term control or relief of symptoms
- Requires your rehabilitation or for you to be specially trained to cope with it
- Continues indefinitely
- Has no known cure
- Comes back or is likely to come back

Co-payment: The percentage of the costs which you must pay. For example, if a benefit has a 20% co-payment, you pay 20% of the eligible costs, and we pay the remaining 80%.

Deductible: The amount you must pay toward eligible expenses before we begin paying benefits.

Emergency: The onset of a sudden and unforeseen medical condition that requires immediate medical assistance. Only treatment commencing within 24 hours of the emergency event will be covered.

Pre-existing condition: Any medical condition or related condition for which symptoms have been shown, or for which you have received or sought medical advice, consultation, investigation, diagnosis, or treatment, in the 5 years prior to your policy start date.
